“ I miss you cuz. You were always there to bring on a smile and a laugh in my darkest moments. I'll always love and cherish the time we had hanging out and our talks on the phone. I'll always love you!!

“ I have never met Wolf, he was a friend of a friend, but we became FB friends through her. He was such a great guy to talk to about lots of things, and made me laugh when he was on phone with mutual friend. My condolences for Wolf's family.

“ I'm so sorry for your loss, my prayers are with you. I worked in the same building as Wolf only different shifts. He would always get to work about an hour or so before his shift. He would make it a point to come into the welding room to talk to me. I remember making pictures of his stepdad and putting them into frames for his mom. I made one of the frames really special for her. Wolf said that she really liked them. He was always sending me picture of deer and some really pretty sunset because I wanted to make copies and put them into frames. He was always buying me little things like phone stands and chargers. I have moved away from Pennsylvania but still use the phone stand that he bought me at the job I have now. I wish I were there to say goodbye one last time. He was a great friend and will truly be missed. RIP Wolf for god has received another angel
